

LOSS OF $83,000 FAILED TO WORRY WIFE OF DOCTOR

Wired Brokers to That Effect and Wanted to Stay in the Market.

Process servers are trying to-day to find some trace of Mrs. Sarah C. Robertson, the wife of Dr. Joseph Archibald Robertson, visiting surgeon at the Poly-clinic Hospital, who lives at the Hotel Aberdeen, No. 17 West Thirty-second street. The search is being made to secure service in an attachment obtained against Mrs. Robertson by H. Content & Co., a Stock Exchange firm of brokers, for $83,000 said to have been

The Slim Woman Is Winning

The day of the slim woman's triumph has arrived. "The slimmer one is the more stylish," say the dressmakers. This would have been news for the fat woman a year ago. She would have had to try dieting or exercise. Now, however, the woman who is too fat for the style goes to a druggist and gets a case of Marmola Prescription Tablets, one of which she takes after each meal and at bedtime, and so reduces her corpulent form quickly.

These tablets, being made in accordance with the famous prescription, are perfectly harmless, and they are also the most economical preparation a person can buy, for they cost only 18 cents a large case, one of which is frequently enough to start a person losing fat at the rate of 15 to 20 pounds a day. Pretty nearly every druggist keeps this tablet in stock, but should yours be sold out you can easily obtain a case by sending to the makers, the Marmola Company, Farmer Building, Detroit, Mich.

dropped by Mrs. Robertson in successful speculation.

All the morning two deputy sheriffs lounged on a plush settee in the Hotel Aberdeen lobby, but the doctor did not put in an appearance. When reached by telephone by an Evening World reporter he said:

"I do not know where my wife is. I know nothing whatever about this affair. I must refer you for any further details to her attorney, Robert McKenna, of No. 111 Broadway."

According to the brokers, Mrs. Robertson went into hiding after she had told her brokers to sell 3,000 shares of Union Pacific stock, declaring that she had a private tip from Washington that the market was due to break. But the break didn't eventuate, and Mrs. Robertson's stocks were sold six points below the market price.

Affidavits made before Justice Guy set forth that private detectives have been looking for Mrs. Robertson, but that they had not been able to find her. The attachment was therefore granted. Dr. Robertson, who has an office at No. 45 West Thirty-fourth street, says he doesn't know where his wife is.

The missing Mrs. Robertson to the doctor's second wife. She married him about two years ago. His first wife was Miss Elsie Jones of Birmingham, Ala. At the time of the filing of the first Mrs. Robertson's divorce suit much comment was caused among the doctor's friends by the fact that although he was being sued he still continued to live with Mrs. Robertson at No. 2 West Seventy-fourth street. Mrs. Robertson at that time also decided to her husband her country place in Bath County, Va., estimated to be worth $30,000.

The complaint against the second Mrs. Robertson sets forth that the brokers rendered Mrs. Robertson an account on Dec. 1 last which showed that she owed them $87,027. After that time she directed them to sell the Union Pacific stock short. In carrying out these instructions she became further indebted to the firm for the total sum of $83,304.

Albert M. Wittenberg, a member of H. Content & Co., said that they had heard nothing from Mrs. Robertson since Dec. 12, when she wired as follows:

"This turn in the market does not bother me at all. Stocks will surely go much lower, so continue to keep my account good under our special agreement. Kindest wishes to all for a Merry Xmas. Expect to return soon."

Dr. Robertson is alleged to have told William R. Anderson, employed by the brokerage firm, that his wife had left home after a quarrel with him and that he had no idea where she was. On Dec. 15 he went to Dr. Robertson's office. Mrs. Robertson was there, but he was not allowed to talk to her, as she was "too nervous."

FALLS ON SUBWAY TRACK.

John Pfugger of No. 314 East One Hundred and Fifty-third street had an epileptic fit today and fell from the platform onto the tracks at the One Hundred and Forty-ninth street subway station. From around the curve on which cars enter the station came the rumble of an approaching train, and Special Policeman McBride jumped to the tracks and rushed up to the curve shouting and waving his arms, while women on the platform screamed in a panic.

He flagged the train in time to save Pfugger, whom two men were assisting to the platform. Dr. H. M. Kahn of Mount Sinai Hospital was there, and after an examination of the man he advised that an ambulance be called. He had been cut and bruised by his fall to the tracks. Dr. Jordan took Pfugger to Lincoln Hospital.
